

Roshani Kundaria

108 Canton Way, Lexington, SC 29072 | randp08@gmail.com | 910 – 584 – 7478

Objectives

I worked as an administrative assistant for five months, a math tutor for one year, and a substance abuse counselor/mental health counselor for two years. I have a strong work ethic, including organization, time management, multitasking, and problem-solving skills.

Education

PhD in Social Psychology | May 2022 – May 2025 | Liberty University

- This program teaches how to deal with principles of psychology to large-scale social thought and group psychology.
- Dissertation: Technological Attitudes, Social Media Usage, and Work Ethics Among Educators.

Educational Specialist, Education Counseling | June 2016 – July 2017 | University of South Carolina

- This is incomplete due to maternity and childcare needs.

Master of Arts in Public Policy | August 2013 – May 2016 | Liberty University

- This program teaches the concepts of political philosophy and how it affects people through healthcare, taxation, immigration, and international relations.

Master of Arts in Human Services: Health and Wellness | August 2011 – May 2013 | Liberty University

- Healthcare counselors work to address the psychological and physical needs of communities and individual patients.

Bachelor of Science in Psychology | August 2004 – May 2008 | Campbell University

- Psychology allows an individual to gain an understanding of self to relate and help individuals in society.

Skills & Abilities

Management

- I contribute to meetings and present information as required.
- I possess time management skills and can multitask on multiple projects.

- I can manage a caseload of 50-60 clients.
- I excel at creating strategic plans and finding effective solutions.

Communication

- Besides English, I can speak and understand Gujarati (India).
- I excel in verbal and non-verbal communication, whether written words, captivating visuals, phone conversations, or face-to-face interactions. I can adapt my style to connect and engage with others effectively.

Leadership

- I participated and led in individual, couples/family, and group counseling.
- I thrive in both independent roles and collaborative environments, seamlessly blending my strengths with the power of teamwork to achieve outstanding results.
- I identify and assess personal goals that align with learning and organizational objectives.

Statistics

- I have research experience through the dissertation process of the doctoral program. I can efficiently use Qualtrics, SPSS, and Jamovi.

Experience

Administrative Assistant | Mathnasium (SC) | September 22, 2025 - Present

- I assist the director in updating student records, updating daily calendars, grading, making copies, preparing assessments, effectively communicating with parents and staff in order to facilitate their needs.

Administrative Assistant | Lake Murray Montessori School (SC) | May 9, 2022 – September 23, 2022

- I assist the director in updating student records, making monthly calendars, floating as a substitute teacher, making copies, communicating effectively – via phone, face-to-face, and email, and providing other administrative support to the staff members.

Substance Abuse Counselor/Mental Health | New Season (NC) | September 7, 2009 – May 27, 2011

- Duties included psychosocial intake, obtaining urine samples, weekly counseling (individual, couples/family, and group), educating patients about substances and their effects on the body, and having patients graduate the treatment program with little to no relapse rate.

Tutor | Sylvan Learning Center (NC) | August 4, 2008 – September 4, 2009

- Instruct K – 12 students in mathematics and SAT/ACT preparation while assisting with their assignments.

References

Lucette Morales
Luc9159@aol.com
910-574-0075

Caroline Curran
Horselover150@gmail.com
704-465-0215

Vidhi Patel
saveswrld@gmail.com
910-489-3953