Professional Experience

Assistant Director, Individual Giving (Major Gifts)
Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Boston

Boston, MA
June 2022-March 2025

Cultivated, stewarded, and solicited donors for six and seven-figure multi-year commitments and gifts from a portfolio of 100+ donors. Fostered relationships with faculty to raise funds and awareness of Dana-Farber's basic research enterprise.

- Cultivated relationships with 100+ donors through consistent communication with relevant updates gleaned from diverse sources such as news articles, narrative reports, internal publications, and research memos
- Educated junior research faculty regarding individual philanthropy and provided support to 10+ faculty members to procure donors interested in funding their research
- Raised $1,8750,000 in FY24 to support nursing education, pediatric liver cancer, and unrestricted funding and cross-cutting initiatives of immunotherapy and ID&E
- Navigated a complex $1,000,000 gift commitment which closed as a combination endowed and current-use fund gift involving multiple internal and external stakeholders and deadlines
- Prepared for and anticipated donor needs to resolve issues, provide assistance, and manage comprehensive gift conversations
- Utilized reports and analyzed data to remove 100+ prospects in the last two fiscal years to refine a portfolio of majority pipeline prospects
- Developed and implemented custom fundraising strategies and moves management to meet revenue goals

Officer, Annual Giving (Prospect Management Team)
Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, Boston

Boston, MA
May 2020-June 2022

Cultivated, stewarded, and solicited gifts from a portfolio of 450 donors on an annual cycle. Fostered trusting connections, provided support and pertinent information to grow long-term relationships with donors. Gleaned the philanthropic needs, interests, passions, and values of donors to strategically ensure their renewed giving at a higher capacity and/or long-term timeframe.

- Built trusting relationships by meeting with 20% of donors annually through phone, virtual, or in-person visits
- Developed strategies for thoughtfully aligning donor interests with philanthropic priorities to increase their affinity to the Institute
- Created systems to efficiently and effectively manage a portfolio of donors with varied motivations and giving cycles
- Stewarded donors with 3-4 touchpoints per year by providing information on Institute research, mission, and philanthropic objectives
- Leveraged relationships with other philanthropy teams to develop multi-channel support for donors
- Solicited 80% of portfolio in fiscal year 2021 which totaled 300 solicitations including successful gift upgrades
- Solicited and engaged donors resulting in $700,000 in total revenue raised in fiscal year 2021

Development Manager
