

SUMMARY

Results-driven and highly creative SAP & Salesforce Business Analyst with experience of developing and implementing successful exposure to diverse technologies and business operations. Innovative problem solver with the ability to see the business and technical sides of the problem. Looking for a challenging position in a dynamic organization where I can apply my expertise and skills to make a significant contribution.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Business Administration in Management Information Systems
University of Houston-Downtown, Marilyn Davies College of Business

December'18

EXPERIENCE

Power Fleet (SALESFORCE Business Analyst)

Feb'23 – Present

- Developed and maintained Salesforce reports and dashboards, providing key insights to management, and contributing to a 10% increase in sales revenue.
- Gathered and analyzed business requirements from stakeholders, resulting in the successful implementation of Salesforce customizations that improved process efficiency by 15%.
- Developed and maintained data migration processes, ensuring a seamless transition to Salesforce and achieving a 90% data accuracy rate.
- Providing training and documentation for Salesforce users, resulting in a 40% increase in user proficiency and a 30% decrease in support requests.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams to design and configure Salesforce applications, resulting in a 30% reduction in manual data entry and a 25% increase in data accuracy.
- Worked on various Salesforce objects like Accounts, Contact, Leads, Opportunities, Reports and Dashboards
- Worked in Cross Functional team environment, served as liaison between SME's, Project Manager, and stakeholders to ensure accuracy in the SDFC implementation and other business requirement.
- Manage user setup, profiles, and roles, customization of objects, fields, record types, page layouts, and validations.

Mindray (Business Systems Analyst)

June'22 – Feb'23

- Analyzed and Documented Business Requirements Document (BRD), Functional Specification Documentation, and System Requirement Documentation, using UML methodologies.
- Facilitated JAD Sessions. Ability to identify and document critical requirements through analysis.
- Worked on developing Use Cases Models, Use Cases Diagrams, Context diagrams, process Flows, Data Flows, and workflows.
- Documented and submitted for approval business requirements documents, functional specifications document, and data mapping sheets, process and business flow diagrams, test cases.

Infosys (SAP Business Analyst)

July'19 – May'22

- Supported the SAP project implementation (end to end) and the Post Go-live including project presentation, blueprint, realization, final realization and go-live.
- Performed the full life cycle analysis, design, configuration, testing, implementation & support created and maintained vendor and material masters Configured Material Master including Material Types, definition of views and fields.
- Configured message types for purchasing documents like purchase orders, PR, Info records, outline agreements, source lists, and automatic PO creation.
- Configured vendor master Created vendor account groups, number ranges, purchasing groups, defined partner determination schemas and assigned to account groups, terms of payment.
- Created and maintained Material Master Data and Vendor Master Data
- Collected project requirements and performed procurement blueprint and gap analysis.
- Created functional specifications for the release procedures of Purchase Orders and Purchase Requisitions

SKILLS AND ATTRIBUTES

- Minitab, Solid Works, SAP, Visual Basic, Visio, MS Office, Microsoft Project, Lucid Chart, Smartsheet.
- Salesforce, Tableau, SAP, Database Management, MySQL, SQL Server, PowerBI, Jira, Confluence, JavaScript.