

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Business professional with 4 years of expertise in conducting in depth analysis, process improvement, and strategic planning. Proven track record of delivering impactful results through data-driven insights, innovative problem-solving, and effective stakeholder management. Possess strong analytical skills, attention to detail, and the ability to manage complex projects effectively. Seeking to leverage expertise in business and project management to drive growth and transformation.

SKILLSET

Programming Languages	Python, R, Java
BI Tools	Cognos, Tableau, Power BI, SAS
Cloud	Azure, Amazon AWS
Databases	MySQL, MS Access, SQL Server Management Studio, Aginity, TOAD for oracle
Others	SIT & UAT Testing, MS Office, Scrum, Agile, Business Process Analysis, Project Documentation, Stakeholder Management

WORK EXPERIENCEConsultant, Risk Platforms

June 2022 – Present

Risk Analytics and Credit decisioning, CIBC, Toronto, ON

- Collaborate with partners and senior management to develop and implement business strategies as well as manage the overall risk profile of the portfolio by analyzing data used in the development and maintenance of risk platforms.
- Work closely with business partners to gather complex business requirements, lead discussions, and ensure requirement completeness.
- Develop test plans, maintain project documentation and engage various stakeholders that would be impacted by new changes in the risk platforms proposed by the business.
- Perform validation of the policy and business rules implemented in the credit decisioning system using SAS.
- Utilize data-driven processes and perform data analysis to present insights and strategic recommendations to the stakeholders and management for business growth and optimization.
- Ensure accuracy of solution design documents including around areas such as scope clarification and quality assurance.

Sr. Business Analyst, Risk Analytics

March 2021 – June 2022

Risk Business Intelligence Office, Enterprise Risk Management, CIBC, Toronto, ON

- Managed the preparation and distribution of monthly reporting by providing substantial risk insights of Commercial and Capital Market.
- Analyzed and transformed data, leveraging tools such as SQL Server, Excel, and Aginity to develop and execute SQL scripts.
- Executed SIT, UAT & DEV testing for reports ensuring that changes have been implemented and tests are passed.
- Developed and delivered executive-level presentations and reports to communicate findings and recommendations.
- Performed Ad hoc analysis to support report consumers by addressing reporting questions, investigating data issues and executing variance analysis.

Associate Analyst

Feb 2020 – March 2021

Fraud Controls, Enterprise Fraud Management, CIBC, Toronto, ON

- Supported the collection of evidence and information related fraud reports, to be used for multiple purposes including incident reports/filing, loss prevention, management information and statistics, and process improvements.
- Conducted investigation to identify, assess, decide and report on activities that indicated an exposure to financial crimes.
- Documented actions, information and instructions in order to provide to internal/external stakeholders related to fraud incidents as necessary and the decisions made by updating the appropriate databases for files investigated.
- Minimized fraud losses for CIBC by immediately taking action on suspicious activities and identifying new opportunities to maximize the customer experience utilizing several applications.

EDUCATION

Project Management, Centennial College, Canada

Jan 2019 – Aug 2019

Big Data Analytics, Georgian College, Canada

May 2018 – Dec 2018

Bachelor of Technology, Computer Science, Amity University, India

Aug 2013 – May 2017

TRAININGS

Wipro, India

June 2016 – July 2016

HCL Career Development Centre, India

June 2014 – Aug 2014