

Omar Adam

Omarkadam3@gmail.com | (508) 369-8034 | Boston, MA

Detail-oriented Data Quality Analyst and IT Support Specialist with expertise in data validation, analytics, technical support, and ticket management. Skilled in conducting audits, optimizing SQL databases, building Power BI dashboards, managing ERP systems, and leveraging Excel for advanced data profiling. Proven track record of improving data integrity, enhancing service delivery, and driving business growth through actionable insights and technical excellence.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Software: Power BI, Salesforce, SQL, Python, Tableau, Microsoft SQL Server Management Studio, Bloomberg, Microsoft Office Suite, Excel, Microsoft Dynamics, Microsoft Azure, Microsoft Fabric

Soft Skills: Data Cleansing, Data Profiling, Statistical Analysis, Innovative, Leadership, Teamwork, Time Management, Written/Verbal Communication

WORK EXPERIENCE

❖ Flight Centre, Boston, MA

July 2023 – May 2025

Data Quality Analyst

- Conducted regular audits and data validation processes to ensure accuracy and compliance with established standards.
- Implemented data cleansing techniques to identify and rectify discrepancies and inconsistencies.
- Maintained and optimized SQL-based database systems to enhance data quality and accessibility.
- Conducted data profiling and statistical analysis utilizing Excel to identify quality issues and emerging trends.
- Created and validated reports to ensure accurate data representation and actionable insights.
- Designed and implemented dashboards and visualizations in Power BI to effectively monitor and assess data quality metrics.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams to develop and implement data quality improvement initiatives.

❖ Integrichain, Philadelphia, PA

August 2022 - July 2023

Junior Data Analyst

- Managed ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) system resolved errors based on a defined set of rules and performed corrections where required.
- Created wholesalers or customers information in the ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) system
- Processed managed care rebate claims, met contractual payment deadlines, and accommodated challenging timelines.
- Ensured customer compliance with contract terms, reconciled inconsistencies in information from different sources, and worked with unconventional customer data formats.
- Relied on instructions and pre-established guidelines to perform the functions of the job.
- Monitored and reviewed data from the system, identified trends, and recommended process improvements.
- Conducted daily scrum meetings to review Medicaid invoices, prioritized invoices, and processed them in a timely manner. – Acted as the point of contact for an account, provided weekly updates reports to the manager on the payments made and pending payments, and updated the payment tracker daily to ensure compliance with customer terms.
- Demonstrated exceptional customer service, communicated effectively with internal and external stakeholders, and resolved issues promptly.

❖ Thrive Networks, Foxborough, MA

May 2022 – August 2022

Associate Engineer

- Assigned incoming support tickets to appropriate engineering teams based on issue type and priority
 - Reprioritized and reassigned tickets to meet service level agreements (SLAs).
 - Managed engineer queues by balancing workload based on capacity, expertise, and availability.
 - Provided backup support by answering overflow calls and creating tickets as needed to maintain service efficiency.
 - Delivered customer service support for escalated service requests and urgent issues.
 - Handled technician-level service requests as needed to ensure timely issue resolution.
-

EDUCATION

University of Massachusetts Lowell, Lowell, MA

· B.S. in Management Information Systems and Operational Management